

Harriman Institute Junior Fellowships

Volodymyr and Lydia Z. Bazarko Fellowship

Dr. Volodymyr Bazarko and his wife Mrs. Lydia Z. Bazarko have established an endowment fund for the Ukrainian Studies Program at the Harriman Institute. The Bazarko Fellowship is awarded annually to a student whose research focuses on Ukraine, its culture, politics, economics or history.

Isaac Henry Ergas Fellowship

The Ergas Memorial Fellowship is awarded to outstanding students conducting research in Turkic and Central Asian Studies. Candidates for this fellowship must share Isaac Henry Ergas' enduring commitment to promote economic development and social justice and to overcome ethnic strife. They must apply for it specifically, are required to inform the Ergas family of their research plans and progress, and must acknowledge receipt of the Fellowship in any written work produced with the aid of such funding, copies of which must be deposited with the Harriman Institute.

John N. Hazard Fellowship

The Hazard Fellowship is awarded to graduate students who have shown excellence in the study of the rule of law in Russia. It was established by the students and friends of legal scholar John Hazard, one of the founders of the Russian Institute and, indeed, of Soviet Studies in the United States.

The Hazard Fellowship is open to all Columbia graduate students.

Jaan Pennar Fellowship Fund for Baltic Studies

The Pennar Fund was established as a permanent endowment of the Harriman Institute by family and friends of the late Jaan Pennar, author and scholar, to commemorate his life by promoting understanding and appreciation of the politics, economics, culture, and history of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania.

Shkilnyk Fellowship for Ukrainian Studies

The Shkilnyk Fellowship is awarded to one graduate student concentrating in Ukrainian history and/or social sciences.

The Shkilnyk Fellowship is open to all Columbia graduate students.
