PEPSICO Fellowships for Research Travel
in Russia, Eurasia, and East Central Europe

PepsiCo fellowships are awarded to outstanding Columbia faculty to support semester and summer travel to Russia, Eurasia, and East Central Europe, for the purposes of conducting research. In exceptional cases, travel to make a research presentation at a conference in the region may be supported. (Travel within the U.S. or to other regions is not supported.)

Application requirements:

- Proposal - (2 page max.) Please include research project title, dates of proposed travel, and indicate for which semester/summer you are applying. Please include any arrangements you have made with the host institution.
- Itemized budget – Please include the actual cost of airfare. Maximum award: $3,500; smaller requests are encouraged.
- Curriculum vitae

Deadline:

Summer/Fall fellowships – May 3rd
Winter/spring fellowships – November 15th

Application materials should be emailed in a single message to Xan Faber, xlf2101@columbia.edu. Please send all documents as PDFs. Fellowship recipients will be required to submit a brief trip report within six weeks of their return.

Please note that all countries in our region are currently at Level 3 or 4 and approval from ISOS, School Dean, AND the Provost office will be required in order to travel and receive reimbursement from the Harriman Institute.

*Procedure for Faculty Requesting International Travel for Columbia-related Activities in U.S. Department of State Level 3 & 4 Countries

1. Complete Travel Waiver.
2. Register travel with ISOS.
3. Have itinerary reviewed by ISOS.
4. Secure written approval from the dean or head of administrative unit.
5. Secure written approval from the Provost.

Applies to travel both from the U.S. to non-U.S. countries and between non-U.S. countries, including after a return to a non-U.S. country of residence.

Requests should be submitted prior to booking travel and at least 30 days prior to the commencement of travel.

Please contact globaltravel@columbia.edu for more information.