REVOLUTIONARY UKRAINE 1917-2017
History
UN3241
Points: 4
Mondays, 2:10PM-4PM
Instructor: Myroslav Shkandrij

Over the last hundred years there have been four periods of revolutionary upheaval on the territory of today’s Ukraine: the events of 1917-20, Stalin’s “second” revolution of 1933-34, the “nationalist revolution” of the 1940s, and the Euromaidan Revolution of 2013-14. These historical flashpoints play an important role in current memory wars. The course provides a guide to the most controversial issues and the conflicting ways in which each revolutionary cycle has been interpreted. It also indicates neglected episodes and suggests how new approaches can bridge narrative divides.

UKRAINIAN AVANT-GARDE, 1910-30
Slavic
GU4122
Points: 3
Thursdays, 4:10PM-6PM
Instructor: Myroslav Shkandrij

Many of the greatest avant-garde artists of the early twentieth century came from Ukraine. Whether they remained in the country or emigrated to Western Europe and North America after 1917, they made major contributions to painting, sculpture, theatre, and film-making. This course traces the avant-garde’s development from pre-war years in Paris to the onset of Stalinism in the early thirties. It discusses the movement’s political choices, the contribution of Jewish artists, and the work of emblematic figures such as David Burliuk, Mykhailo Boichuk, Kazimir Malevych, Vadym Meller, Ivan Kavaleridze, and Dziga Vertov. The course surveys the avant-garde’s influence on later Soviet and contemporary art.

UKRAINIAN FOREIGN POLICY: RUSSIA, EUROPE & THE U.S.
Regional Institute
U8757
Points: 3
Tuesdays, 2:10PM-4:00PM
Instructor: Valerii Kuchynskyi

The seminar-like course consists of three parts: Historical Background, Thematic and Political Issues and Conclusions. It provides historical perspectives on the development of today’s Ukraine, analyses the evolution of its politics since Independence, and its quest for Euro-Atlantic integration. While providing an assessment of political, social and economic transformations, the course examines major causes of Euromaidan and the Revolution of Dignity. The current political situation in the country and the ongoing war with Russia will be thoroughly investigated.

The top priority of Ukraine's foreign policy is to ensure international support for its efforts to rebuff Russia's full-fledged aggression and to fully restore its sovereignty and territorial integrity. Can diplomacy still play a role? What is to be done to solve the existing internal problems? What is to be done to restore the country? Can Ukraine's President, its Government and Parliament solve all these problems? How realistic is the prospect of Euro-Atlantic integration of Ukraine? Is there a future for the UN peace-keeping operation in Ukraine?

These and other issues, including behind-the-scenes activities, power struggle and diplomatic endeavors are analyzed in the course.

The course delivers first-hand insight by a career diplomat who has been actively involved in the implementation of Ukraine's foreign policy and closely connected with the upper echelons of the country's political establishment.

POST COLONIAL/POST SOVIEET CINEMA
Comparative Literature/Slavic
GU4075
Points: 3
Tuesdays, 6:10PM-10:00PM
Instructor: Yuri Shevchuk

The course will discuss how filmmaking has been used as an instrument of power and imperial domination in the Soviet Union as well as on post-Soviet space since 1991. A body of selected films by Soviet and post-Soviet directors which exemplify the function of filmmaking as a tool of appropriation of the colonized, their cultural and political subordination by the Soviet center will be examined in terms of postcolonial theories. The course will focus both on Russian cinema and often overlooked work of Ukrainian, Georgian, Belarusian, Armenian, etc. national film schools and how they participated in the communist project of fostering a «new historic community of the Soviet people» as well as resisted it by generating, in hidden and, since 1991, overt and increasingly assertive ways their own counter-narratives. Close attention will be paid to the new Russian film as it re-invents itself within the post-Soviet imperial momentum projected on the former Soviet colonies.
