

Ksenya Kiebusinski holds an M.I.S (SUNY at Albany, 1988), M.A. in Women Studies (Brandeis, 1999) and Ph.D. in Literary Studies (Brandeis, 2002). Prior to joining the University of Toronto Libraries, she served as Jacyk Bibliographer at the Harvard Ukrainian Research Institute (1991–2006). Presently, she is Head of the Petro Jacyk Central and East European Resource Centre and Slavic Resources Coordinator at the University of Toronto Libraries. She also co-directs (with Professor Lucan Way) the Petro Jacyk Program for the Study of Ukraine, and coordinates the Ukraine Research Group, at the Centre for European, Russian, and Eurasian Studies. Her research interests include bibliography, the history of the book and library collections, Austrian Galicia, and 19th-century French culture. Her articles have appeared in Austrian History Yearbook, Harvard Ukrainian Studies, Slavic & East European Information Resources, and Canadian Slavonic Papers. Book publications include the volume The Great West Ukrainian Prison Massacre of 1941: A Sourcebook (Amsterdam UP, 2016), co-edited with Alexander Motyl, and Maximum Imaginateness: An Exhibition on Modern Czech Book Design, 1900–1950: Exhibition and Catalogue (Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library, University of Toronto, 2015).