

Ukrainian Activism in Washington D.C: From Kuchmagate to Today's Russian-Ukrainian War

Myroslava Gongadze

This presentation will focus on Ukrainian activism and the influence on policy making in DC from Kuchmagate, to the Orange Revolution, to the Revolution of Dignity and to today's war. I will talk about new groups of Ukrainian influencers and modern diaspora organizations active in the US capital, as well as the factors of their establishment and effect. I will examine how the view on Ukraine has changed over the years.
