

Ukrainian Studies in North America: In Search of a Framework

Volodymyr Kravchenko

My presentation is going to be an overview of the institutional and intellectual development of Ukrainian studies in the USA and Canada during the Cold war. I am focusing in particular on the paradigm shift and trying to approach the issue from the perspective of a dialogue: 1) between main schools of historical writing within Ukrainian studies and 2) between Ukrainian and Western scholars within the fields of the Slavic, Soviet, and East European studies.
