

Uliana M. Pasiecznyk has been an editor of scholarship in Ukrainian Studies for many years. Her editorial career began at HURI, where she joined the staff of its journal, Harvard Ukrainian Studies, and served as the journal's managing editor. In 1992, she joined the Hrushevsky Translation Project of the Peter Jacyk Centre for Ukrainian Historical Research at the Canadian Institute of Ukrainian Studies, Universities of Alberta and Toronto, serving as that project's managing editor. She is also a translator and manuscript editor of Ukrainian Literature: A Journal of Translations. In 2018, she became head interviewer for HURI's Oral History Project.