

Uladzislau Belavusau is a Senior Researcher in European law at the T.M.C. Asser Institute – University of Amsterdam (the Netherlands) and currently leads the Dutch team of the MEMOCRACY project (2021-2024). Previously he was a Principal Investigator for the MELA project (2016-2019). His research and teaching cover various areas of EU (especially constitutional and anti-discrimination) law, comparative constitutional law, human rights, and memory politics.