

Olga Bertelsen is an Associate Professor of Global Security and Intelligence at Tiffin University. Educated at the Medical State University (Ukraine), Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania (the United States), Penn State University (the United States), and the University of Nottingham (the United Kingdom), she published widely on genocide and political violence in the USSR, and the methods and traditions of the Soviet/Russian secret police. She is the author and editor of five books, including In the Labyrinth of the KGB and Russian Active Measures.