

Maksim Hanukai is Associate Professor of Russian at the University of Wisconsin–Madison. He is the author of Tragic Encounters: Pushkin and European Romanticism (University of Wisconsin Press, 2023) and co-editor of New Russian Drama: An Anthology (Columbia University Press, 2019). His articles have addressed Pushkin, contemporary Russian theater and performance, and the novels of Dmitry Prigov. His current project, tentatively titled The Conceptualist Pharmacy in the Time of Transition, examines the problem of collective embodiment in the late- and post-Soviet periods through the discursive practices of the “Young Conceptualist” art group Inspection “Medical Hermeneutics.”
