

Margarita Kuleva is a sociologist of culture, artist, curator, and a Visiting Assistant Professor in the Department of Russian and Slavic Studies at NYU. Her research explores labor inequalities in the art world, focusing on invisible cultural work in the post-Soviet context. She holds a PhD in sociology from the Higher School of Economics in collaboration with Bielefeld University. Her dissertation, based on over 70 interviews, compares post-Soviet and British cultural institutions as workplaces. Her research has appeared in The European Journal of Cultural Studies, Cultural Studies, and The International Journal of Cultural Studies.